

Han Moo Kwan Tae Kwon Do

Pyung Ahn One

Pyung Ahn One is expected to be demonstrated by students who are testing at a rank of Green Belt or above. It is assumed here that all stances and techniques for this form have been taught as well as the “I” pattern explained. While it maintains the “I” pattern from the Kibon series, it loses its symmetry in that the same sequence is not executed up the center of the “I” as it is returning down the center of the “I”. If not explicitly stated, the default stance is an Attack Stance.

The four (4) new moves, techniques, or variations to techniques introduced in Pyung Ahn One are:

- Cat Stance Downward Hammer Fist
- 180 Degree Turn from Attack Stance to Horse Stance
- Horse Stance Downward Double Knife Hand
- 90 Degree Turn in Horse Stance
